

Surround Your Baby With Protection. Vaccinate Your Entire Family.

Pertussis (Whooping Cough) can be deadly to infants.

Vaccinating your family is important because infants cannot get the first dose of the pertussis vaccine until they are two months old. And they are not fully protected until they get the third dose of the vaccine at six months.

For more information, contact your health care provider or visit www.scdhec.gov/scimmunize
1.800.27SHOTS (1.800.277.4687)

Save Lives
•immunize•
south carolina

Scan this QR code to learn about pertussis vaccine safety.

